January 2009

It is not long since many of us met to celebrate the life of Marion after she died on 31st July 2008. Since then, Pat has been a source of joy to us as he has soldiered on towards his 94th birthday. He didn't quite make it, but passed away peacefully in his sleep in the evening of 6th January 2009.

The family are so grateful for the opportunity that we have had in the last few months to enjoy Pat's love and wisdom, but we know that part of him has been yearning to join Marion in their eternal resting place with our Lord. We can only rejoice that he is now with her in the presence of Jesus after a lifetime of service to God.

The family are particularly grateful for the love and care that has been lavished on Pat by so many over the past months and years. From the doctors and District Nurses to agency care staff, from the hospital staff to the dedicated team that looked after him 24 hours a day at home, from various friends and neighbours to extended family – all have cared for him so tenderly that we are humbled by their display of love.

Pat was a unique individual. Inspired by a love for Jesus, he worked tirelessly in various parts of the world and helped so many people. Amidst all of that, he was also a wonderful husband, father and grandfather. If you would like to read more about his life, we've put some information online at:

We are grateful to you for your prayers and words of comfort, and for the love and affection that you have for both Pat and Marion. We know that they felt blessed by the wide circle of friends whom they came to know over the years, and we hope that you will stay in touch with us.

We have arranged his funeral service for Saturday, 24th January at 11.30 am at the Parish Church of St Peter & St Paul, Godalming following which he will be buried at Eashing Cemetery with Marion. We would love to see you there and afterwards for a buffet lunch at Loseley House.

Thank you for your love and care.
